

Education Services

Jersey Archive can offer teachers the chance to visit the Archive with school groups of up to 40 pupils. Groups can either be given tours of the building or Archive staff will run a workshop on a specific topic, e.g. the German Occupation or Family History.

Archive staff are also happy to assist teachers who wish to learn more about the resources we hold. Staff are able to visit individual schools and give talks on specific topics.