Make your event an historic occasion

Jersey Heritage has a choice of fascinating and unique heritage sites available for hire. Whether it is for a large dinner or ball at a castle, a drinks reception in a farmhouse or a breakfast meeting at a museum, we can offer an exceptional, memorable venue for any function and plan an event or day's activities specifically catered to your budget and requirements.

Unique to each of our sites are our living history re-enactment team. From falconry and medieval archery to Victorian housekeepers and musket wielding Militiamen, they bring alive the history of the sites and ensure an unforgettable experience for all guests.

These sites have been at the heart of Island life for 3,000 years, in choosing to hold your event with us you are helping to preserve Jersey's culture and heritage.

Along with our fascinating sites we have a choice of excellent caterers and suppliers to use for your event. For further information on this and our prices, availability and packages please contact the Heritage Venues Co-ordinator:

Jersey Museum

The Museum explains the traditions and culture of the Island and is a peaceful refuge in the heart of St Helier. Easily accessible, the site has a number of areas for hire and is ideal for meetings, workshops, launches or social events, with the benefit of an onsite brasserie that boasts an award winning al fresco dining area.

Entertaining

Concourse

The large ground floor concourse at the Museum is an excellent setting for evening drinks receptions, award ceremonies and launches for up to 150 guests.

Meetings

The Merchant's House

No 9 Pier Road adjoins the Jersey Museum and is one of the finest examples of a 19th century town house in Jersey. It has been fully restored to how it would have looked in 1861 when it was home to a prosperous family in Victorian St Helier. Dinners and drinks receptions can be held in the beautiful gas-lit drawing room, functions can incorporate a guided tour of the house or art gallery.

Whole Museum hire

The whole Museum is available for hire in the evenings with all exhibition rooms, the Merchant's House and the art gallery open for up to 250 guests to explore.

Oules Room

The Oules room is situated in a quiet area of the Museum. Delegates will pass through the Barreau Le Maistre art gallery on their way to this bright, modern meeting room. With full wheel chair access and air-conditioning, the room is ideal for meetings, presentations, workshops and courses.

The Concourse Theatre

The theatre is located on the ground floor and can be hired for events such as presentations, launches and awards evenings. Accommodating up to 50 guests this can be used in conjunction with a drinks reception in the Museum concourse. It is also available for early morning presentations with breakfast in the Brasserie or concourse.

Mont Orgueil Castle

Standing majestically over the fishing village of Gorey, Mont Orgueil provides a dramatic backdrop to any event. Built in the 13th century to protect the Island against the French, this jewel in Jersey's crown is one of the best-preserved castles in Britain and one of the most photographed sites in the Island.

The Medieval Great Hall

Standing high up in the heart of the building, this hall is the oldest part of the medieval castle and is believed to have been the site of grand celebrations and ceremonies. With a beaten earth floor, vaulted roof and arched windows looking down to the sea and across to the coast of France, it offers an impressive location for dinners, drinks parties and presentations.

The Grand Battery

This was originally a 16th century gun battery and now is a sweeping lawned platform that dominates the North Eastern part of the castle, and offers superb views of Jersey's east coast and across the sea to France. It is the perfect location for a summer's evening drinks function before either entering the castle for dinner or going back down to the lower ward for a function in a marquee.

The Herb Garden

This is a recreation of a 17th century formal garden. It is an idyllic sheltered spot and excellent for pre-dinner drinks with exceptional, uninterrupted views out to sea.

Elizabeth Castle

Jersey has been protected for 300 years by this fortification built on an islet in St Aubin's Bay. Twice a day this imposing castle is surrounded by the rising tide making it a truly spectacular venue.

Due to the unique location of the castle, access is very dependant on the tide and weather. The castle ferry can operate at all times except when the tide is high and the wind is strong creating a rough sea. Please take advice from our staff when booking your function. For certain types of event only specific dates will be available.

The Governor's House

Built in the 14th century the house was once home to Charles II and Sir Walter Raleigh. This beautiful building, with a large outside terrace, is located near the top of the castle and has fantastic views. The house boasts two original granite fireplaces and wooden floors. It is available for daytime and evening hire for dinner parties, lunches, presentations or a summer drinks reception on the terrace.

Meetings

The Courtyard

This area is available in the evenings for an outdoor drinks reception surrounded by the restored farm buildings with thatched roofs, which create a beautiful backdrop.

Le Pressoir - The Press House

With its traditional press and granite apple crusher, this is a special venue for a drinks function or buffet. It is particularly popular in the winter months for candle-lit receptions with mulled cider and bean crock.

The whole site

The whole farm can be hired for the evening. All the buildings remain open and guests would be free to explore the farm. Drinks with stories from our Goodwyf and other living history characters can be taken in the courtyard or cider barn, before a dinner in Hamptonne House or a stroll through the archway and past the herb garden to a marquee overlooking the meadow.

Joan Stevens Room

This is a quiet and comfortable room that provides an excellent venue for courses, presentations or workshops. There is ample parking and a licensed café onsite.

Maritime Museum

Set in the old harbour area of St Helier and housed in historic granite warehouses, the award winning Maritime Museum is an ideal venue for a special function. Events such as drinks receptions, presentations, award ceremonies, and product and press launches can be held here. The Museum is very convenient for local businesses as it is only a 10-minute walk from the town centre and ample public parking is available nearby.

Entertaining

The Globe Room

The centrepiece of the Museum is the Globe Room; this fascinating space is filled with interactive exhibits and is an impressive and memorable venue for any function.

The Occupation Tapestry Gallery

The gallery houses 12 vibrant and emotive tapestries documenting the German occupation of Jersey. It is a popular space for presentations and tours.

Whole Museum hire

A presentation can be held in the Occupation Tapestry Gallery with a drinks reception to follow in the Globe Room, enabling your guests to explore the whole Museum in private.
