SUPPORT FOR LEARNING

JERSEY HERITAGE hold collections and manage a variety of historic sites which can provide an opportunity for a learning experience outside the classroom by providing pupils with unique experiences and insights, the opportunity to visit historic sites and to see and handle real objects and the opportunity to experience primary sources.

Children’s attainment can be raised, self-esteem can be increased and different learning styles can be catered for.
Jersey Heritage can help and support schools in a variety of ways

- Help teachers to deliver the Jersey Curriculum targets by basing learning on objects, sites and activities
- Help teachers to deliver across the Curriculum
- Bring classroom teaching alive and access culture and heritage
- Help teachers to provide for cross-curricular work
- Offer enjoyable, positive experiences for children of all ages and abilities in an environment where all children feel they can contribute
- Schools can visit Jersey Heritage sites for teacher-guided tours
- Loan Boxes are available for reproduction and authentic artefact handling of collections
- Loan materials from museum collections can go out to schools

The benefits for children include:

- Visiting local historic sites
- Handling real and high quality replica artefacts
- Developing thinking skills, including problem solving, enquiry, observation, empathy, understanding
- Social benefits, e.g. team work, meeting new adults
- The opportunity to participate actively as citizens and develop social skills with other people outside of the school environment.

If there are any SEN requests for pupils and associated additional numbers of staff, please make these known at the time of booking.
Guidelines for groups to Jersey Heritage sites

To help you fully enjoy your visit to our sites, please ensure your group follow these guidelines. Any group who do not follow these guidelines maybe asked to leave the premises without a refund.

Please ensure all supervising adults/teachers/leaders read through the following guidelines carefully and relay instructions to students in the group before visiting any Jersey Heritage Site. We hope you enjoy your visit.

If you have any questions, please contact groupbookings@jerseyheritage.org

Supervision

• Jersey Heritage has minimum and maximum ratio recommendations

• All groups must have at least one qualified teacher with them

• Teachers are responsible for the groups they lead and students must be supervised at all times whilst they are at a Jersey Heritage site

• Students must respect other visitors to Jersey Heritage sites and be mindful when moving through the site

• Large groups maybe requested to split into smaller groups when moving through a site

• You are responsible for the children that you bring

• Put litter in the bins provided

• Do not throw objects whilst on the site

• Please stick to the trails and routes already marked around the sites

• Remember that some animals bite! Please do not feed, chase or disturb the animals that can be found around the sites

• If the above guidelines are not followed your group maybe asked to leave the site without a refund
Security

• To ensure that you enjoy your visit, we ask that leaders are responsible for their group throughout the visit, including the time spent in picnic areas, as well as shops

• At least one teacher must accompany any student in a shop

• Leaders must ensure that members of their group follow all advice given by the site staff

Activities

• It is the responsibility of the leader of the group that children are supervised during activities

Risk Assessments

• It is the responsibility of the school to provide it’s own risk assessment for each of their visits (in accordance with the ESC guidelines for external school visits)

• Jersey Heritage has a basic risk assessment for school group visits for each site, but these will need to be adapted for your specific group and purpose

First Aid

• It is the responsibility of the school to bring a qualified first aider as part of their group and they will be responsible for the first aid of the group whilst on site

• Jersey Heritage site staff are first aid trained

Parking

• With the exception of La Hougue Bie and Hamptonne, none of our sites have dedicated parking
