

1781 - The Battle of Jersey

Resources: Look at this map of St Helier drawn about ten years after the Battle of Jersey.

Mark on the map the following features:

The Hospital Barracks - where the 78th Regiment were stationed.

Gallows Hill - where the British army and the militia gathered.

The Market Square - where the Battle took place.

The Governor's House - where Major Corbet was captured.

Colomberie - where the French soldiers were first spotted just before 6 o'clock in the morning.
