

Buried Treasure

See the man leaving over the hill? He has just buried some treasure in a secret hole. Draw what you think he has buried. Then have a think about why he might have done this. What was happening in the island at the time that made him think the safest place for his most treasured possessions was in the ground?

